Lots to See & Do

The Grandis
The Grandis, NSW Tallest known tree. This magnificent 400 year old flooded gum is located in Myall Lakes National Park. There is an excellent viewing platform and picnic area. Enter from the Old Pacific Highway (Wootton Way) North of Bulahdelah along Stoney Creek Road. Access also from Lakes Way. Ref D3

Seal Rocks, Sugar Loaf Lighthouse & Blowhole
This unspoiled headland area offers swimming, excellent diving and a scenic walk to the lighthouse past the blowhole to a lookout over Lighthouse Beach and Sugarloaf Bay, an ideal spot to watch migrating whales. There are 2 camp areas, a caravan park and general store. A perfect place to spend the day, go for a swim, have a walk or drop in a line to fish. You may even decide to stay longer. Ref G4

Bulahdelah Court House
A beautiful historic building where you can experience the history of the pioneers, where petty criminals were once sentenced to their fate. Crawford Street, Bulahdelah. Open 7 days a week. Ref D3

Alum Mountain Park, Bulahdelah
This forest park offers picnic facilities, a play area and historical information about Alum Mountain, the largest deposit of Alunite (an industrial additive) in the Southern Hemisphere. Many years ago barges steamed up the Myall River to pick up the valuable resource to ship to Sydney then South Australia. No longer mined, the area now hosts much flora and fauna including some 16 species of orchid, koalas and glossy cockatoos. There are also walking tracks, which take you to the two lookouts. Ref D3

Sugar Creek Toymakers
See wooden toys crafted from local timber before your eyes! Showroom and workshop. Sugar Creek, Bungwahl, off The Lakes Way. Open Tues-Sun and every day during the school holidays. Phone: 4997 8142 Ref F3
